Division of the Province into COUNTIES.

ON the nineteenth Day of July 1771, Took Place an Act of the Legislature of this Province, approved of by his Majesty in Council, for dividing the Province into Five Counties by the Names of ROCKINGHAM, STRAFFORD, HILLSBOROUGH, CHESHIRE, and GRAFTON. The Bounds of which are as follows,

THE FIRST COUNTY to begin at the Mouth of Piscataqua River; and to run up the same to the Easterly Corner of Newmarket, including the River; and from thence Northwesterly, by the Easterly and Northerly side Lines of Newmarket, Epping, Nottingham, Chichester and Canterbury to the River, and down the same to the Line of Concord, including the River, then round the Westerly Lines of Bow, Concord and Pembroke, to Merrimack River, thence down the same to the North West Corner of Derryfield, thence by the Easterly Lines of Derryfield, Litchfield and Nottingham West, to the Province Line; thence by said Line to the Sea; thence by the Sea to the Bounds first mentioned; including all that part of the Isles of Shoals which belongs to this Province.

THE BOUNDS OF THE SECOND COUNTY to begin at the Northwest Corner of Canterbury, and from thence to cross the River, then down the River to Pemigewasset ; then to run up Pemigewasset River to Campton ; thence round the Westerly End of Campton, and by the Northerly side Lines of Campton, Sandwich and Tamworth ; and thence Easterly to the Province Line, on the same Course with the Northerly Side Line of Eaton ; thence down the said Province Line to the Line of the first County ; thence by the same to the Bounds first mentioned.

THE BOUNDS OF THE THIRD COUNTY to begin at the Southeast Corner of Nottingham West ; thence Westerly by the Province Line to the Southeast Corner of Rindge ; thence by the Easterly side Line of Rindge, Monadnock No. 2, Dublin, the Townships No. 6, No. 7, and No. 8 ; thence to the South End of Sunnapee Pond ; thence by the Easterly side of said Pond to the North End thereof ; thence by the Northwesterly Side Line of Dantzick, Heidleburgh, and by the Northerly Side Line of Heidleburgh, and Northwesterly Side Line of Emery's Town to Pemigewasset River ; thence down the same to the Bounds of the first County ; thence by the same to the Bounds first mentioned.

THE BOUNDS OF THE FOURTH COUNTY to begin at the Southeast Corner of Rindge, and from thence to run Westerly by the Province Line, to the Western Banks of Connecticut River ; thence up the same till it comes opposite to the Northwest Corner of Plainfield ; thence crossing the River to the Northwest Corner of Plainfield ; thence by the Northerly Side Lines of Plainfield, and Grantham to the Northeast Corner of Grantham ; thence by the Easterly Side Line of Grantham, and the North Side Line of Saville, to the Boundary Line of the third County, thence by the same to the Bounds first mentioned.

And the fifth County to contain all the Lands in the Province not comprehended in the other Counties.

And whereas the said Counties of Strafford and Grafton are not fully inhabited, at present, but the Inhabitants are daily daily encreasing. It is further enacted, that the said Counties of Strafford and Grafton, shall be for the present annexed to and deemed and taken as Parts and Members of the County of Rockingham, and subject to the Jurisdiction and Authority of the Courts, Magistrates and Officers of the said County of Rockingham to all Intents and Purposes, and shall remain so annexed, deemed, taken and subject, until the Governor, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council, shall declare them respectively sufficient for the Exercise of their respective jurisdictions, and no longer.
